HONDA ENGINE SWAPS

CarTech Inc When it comes to their personal transportation, today's youth have shunned the large, heavy performance cars of their parents' generation and instead embraced what has become known as the "sport compact"--smaller, lightweight, modern sports cars of predominantly Japanese manufacture. These cars respond well to performance modifications due to their light weight and technology-laden, high-revving engines. And by far, the most sought-after and modified cars are the Hondas and Acuras of the mid-'80s to the present. An extremely popular method of improving vehicle performance is a process known as engine swapping. Engine swapping consists of removing a more powerful engine from a better-equipped or more modern vehicle and installing it into your own. It is one of the most efficient and affordable methods of improving your vehicle's performance. This book covers in detail all the most popular performance swaps for Honda Civic, Accord, and Prelude as well as the Acura Integra. It includes vital information on electrics, fit, and drivetrain compatibility, design considerations, step-by-step instruction, and costs. This book is must-have for the Honda enthusiast.

GEO-TREKKING IN ETHIOPIA'S TROPICAL MOUNTAINS

THE DOGU'A TEMBIEN DISTRICT

Springer This book is based on over 150 scientific papers about the Dogu'a Tembien district in Ethiopia. To reach a broader public of people interested in geosites and human-environment interactions, the authors here add a geoguide about this mountain district in Ethiopia(13°30' N, 39°10' E; upto 2850 m high) which shows a varied lithology. A large team has carried out research in that district over the past 23 years, including long stays in the areas. Numerous viewpoints and geosites are only accessible on foot; hence the authors prepared the book as a trekking guide, which will enhance sustainable tourism in the same time. This edited work summarises the study results in the international literature into a comprehensive book, which comprises 35 thematic chapters, detailed description of 573 km of trekking routes to access the landscape and the most scenic excursion points, as well as the necessary logistical information. A state-of-the-art trekking map is included as a digital annex.

THE DIALECTICS OF GLOBALIZATION

ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL CONFLICT IN A TRANSNATIONAL WORLD

Cambridge Scholars Publishing Combining bold theoretical analysis and careful empirical investigation Harris provides a critical framework to understand the political and economic underpinnings of globalization. In a unique historical approach the book examines how the revolution in information technologies and the break-up of the Soviet Union intertwined to present new global opportunities to reorganize capitalism as a unified world system headed by an emerging transnational capitalist class. The book challenges the common view that nation states still define international relations, with the United States as hegemonic leader of the world system. Instead Harris offers a more complex analysis of world affairs that sees the current period as one of transition between nationally based industrial capitalism and a global system based on revolutionary methods of production and new class relationships. He argues this conflict appears in every country as national economies realigned to fit new patterns of world accumulation creating a host of political tensions within and between nations. This analysis is detailed in a distinctive interpretation of the US military/industrial complex, as well as the contemporary class struggles in Germany and the emerging powers of China, India and Brazil. The book concludes by investigating alternative trends which are currently challenging the inequalities of global capitalism, unfolding a fresh approach to the relationship between the state, market and civil society.

THE BODY OF A POET

I love poetry that is easily understood. Poetry that tells me about people and the world we live in and many of my favourite poems tell a story that we can all relate to. This is the type of poetry that I write. I've made a collection of the poems I've written over many years and put them together in this book. There's nothing mystical or difficult in these poems, they are an easy read. Some poems bring a tear to the eye when we read them, others make us laugh out loud. I hope you enjoy reading my poems as much as I enjoyed writing them.

FUEL ECONOMY GUIDE

THE GLOBAL AUTOMOTIVE INDUSTRY

John Wiley & Sons The automotive industry is still one of the world's largest manufacturing sectors, but it suffers from being very technology-focused as well as being relatively short-term focused. There is little emphasis within the industry and its consultancy and analyst supply network on the broader social and economic impacts of automobility and of the sector that provides it. The Global Automotive Industry addresses this need and is a first port of call for any academic, official or consultant wanting an overview of the state of the industry. An international team of specialist researchers, both from academia and business, review and analyse the key issues that make vehicle manufacturing still the world's premier manufacturing sector, closely tied in with the fortunes of both established and newly emerging economies. In doing so, it covers issues related to manufacturing, both established practices as well as new developments; issues relating to distribution, marketing and retail, vehicle technologies and regulatory trends; and, crucially, labour practices and the people who build cars. In all this it explains both how the current situation arose and also likely future trajectories both in terms of social and regulatory trends, as the technological, marketing and labour practice responses to those, leading in many cases to the development of new business models. Key features Provides a global overview of the automotive industry, covering its current state and considering future challenges Contains contributions from international specialists in the automotive sector Presents current research and sets this in an historical and broader industry context Covers threats to the industry, including globalization, economic and environmental sustainability The Global Automotive Industry is a must-have reference for researchers and practitioners in the automotive industry and is an excellent source of information for business schools, governments, and graduate and undergraduate students in automotive engineering.

ALONE

Sourcebooks, Inc. This must-read for lovers of Stephen King's The Shining will leave readers breathless as Seda and her family find themselves at the mercy of a murderer in an isolated and snowbound hotel. Get ready for what Kirkus calls "A bloody, wonderfully creepy scare ride." When her mom inherits an old, crumbling mansion, Seda's almost excited to spend the summer there. The grounds are beautiful and it's fun to explore the sprawling house with its creepy rooms and secret passages. Except now her mom wants to renovate, rather than sell the estate—which means they're not going back to the city...or Seda's friends and school. As the days grow shorter, Seda is filled with dread. They're about to be cut off from the outside world, and she's not sure she can handle the solitude or the darkness it brings out in her. Then a group of teens get stranded near the mansion during a blizzard. Seda has no choice but to offer them shelter, even though she knows danger lurks in the dilapidated mansion—and in herself. And as the snow continues to fall, what Seda fears most is about to become her reality...

"WORK COMPLETED, CANNING"

Phil Bianchi's research is complemented by expert analyses of flora, fauna and pasture. ROAD NEWS FROM TIBET

Springer The subject of this book is a first-person account, from the field, of current conditions in an isolated, rarely described region of Tibet, with emphasis on a description of the day-to-day reality of the interaction between the native Tibetans and the current holders of power, the Chinese. The region discussed is western Sichuan and eastern Tibet, both of which are permeated with Tibetan culture, yet historically the site of continual and intense conflict between the Tibetans and the Chinese. This book is important because it fills a gap; almost all writing about Tibet today concerns the area around its capital, Lhasa, an area where the Chinese can usually control the experiences and contacts between Tibetans and foreigners. This book shows the painful reality in a haunting and beautiful landscape far off the beaten track. Because the author walked over three months and 1200 km there, along one of the traditional pilgrim routes, the descriptions of life in the tents of the nomads and in the barracks of the Chinese are poignantly realistic. Readers can feel assured about the uniqueness of the book's contents because the author is fluent in Chinese and has performed extensive background research about the history of the area; descriptions of today's isolated Tibetan regions are thus put in the perspective of earlier travellers in Tibet, such as Heinrich Harrer and Alexandra David-Neel. Since the days of David-Neel's travels in the area over fifty years ago, no Westerner has walked so far and so long through eastern Tibetan regions. By travelling on foot, the author was forced to experience the reality of the Tibetans on their own terms. "Road News from Tibet" then, can be highly informative for both the academic reader and the armchair traveller.
